Notice Regarding Revisions of Dividend Forecasts for Fiscal Year Ending March 2011

Marubeni Corporation (hereinafter called "Marubeni" or "the Company") announces that the Directors' Meeting held today resolved to revise the dividend forecasts. Details are as follows.

1. Reasons for the revision

Marubeni recognizes that its important corporate responsibilities lie in paying stable dividends to shareholders in a consistent manner as well as maximizing corporate value and competitiveness by building up and effectively utilizing internal reserves.

Marubeni applies a basic policy to determine dividends aiming for a consolidated payout ratio of around 15%, based on the principle of linking dividends to the company's business results for each term, in consideration of maintaining a stable profit distribution to our shareholders.

As announced today, Marubeni revised the prospect for net income attributable to Marubeni Corp. for the fiscal year ending March 2011 to 135.0 billion yen from 125.0 billion yen.

In order to reflect the revisions to the consolidated result prospects, the Company has revised the year-end dividend forecast per share for FY2010 to 6.50 yen from the initial forecast of 5.50 yen and the yearly dividend forecast to 12.00 yen in accordance with the aforementioned basic policies.

2. Revisions of Dividend Forecasts

	Dividend per share (Yen)
	Interim	Year-End	Yearly
Initial Forecasts		5.50	11.00
Revised Forecasts		6.50	12.00
Actual payment of the fiscal year ending March 2011	5.50
(Reference) Actual payment of previous fiscal year (ended March 2010)	3.50	5.00	8.50

The forecasts and prospects on this document are based upon available information and assumptions as of the announcement date, about uncertain factors which would influence upon future businesses. Actual results might be influenced by various factors in the future.
